- Customers will experience the use of the QR Transaction Notification Speaker Service in accordance with these Terms and Conditions;
- To experience the service, Customers will receive a set of QR Speaker device from Woori Bank, including: 01 speaker device, 01 Type C charging cable, 01 QR mica board, and 01

² Service operation fee: The fee of operating services provided by the Provider (9Pay) such as: maintaining, repairing, upgrading infrastructure, systems, 24/7 customer service,...

activated Itel or Mobifone 4G SIM card. The 4G SIM ensures flexibility and stability, with a capacity of 30 MB/month, maintained for 2 years.

- The QR Transaction Speaker helps prevent fraudulent activities such as using fake transfer receipts or fraudulent manipulations, by accurately reading transaction information (the amount received into the customer's payment account) from Woori Bank's system. This is particularly useful for small traders and business households, who often face difficulties in reconciling and tracking incoming funds.

10.1.2 Conditions for Customers to participate in the program:

- Customers must be currently using QR Merchant service at Woori Bank during the Promotion period, and have a normally active payment account, not subject to freezing, temporary blocking, or closure due to Woori Bank detecting risks, discrepancies, suspicious signs/transactions, or abnormal activities of the Customer's use during the promotion period.
- Customers must not be on any suspicious/blacklist/warning list related to fraudulent transactions, scams, money laundering, terrorism financing, proliferation financing of weapons of mass destruction, or legal violations by Woori Bank and/or Competent State Authorities.
- QR Merchant Customers meeting the above conditions must register for the QR Transaction Notification Speaker Service at Woori Bank Branches & Transaction Offices during the program period.

10.1.3 Woori Bank reserves the right to refuse to apply the promotion program or decide to reclaim the set of QR Speaker device in the following cases:

- (i) The customer does not fully meet the conditions to receive the offer as stipulated by the program;
- (ii) Woori Bank detects signs of suspected fraud, impersonation, or misuse of the set of QR Speaker device;
- (iii) In case of technical incidents/other events leading to Woori Bank having to decide to reclaim/exchange the Device/Device Set.

10.1.4 Each eligible customer may receive a maximum of 02 Sets of QR Speaker device during the program period or until the program ends early. If a customer registers to experience 03 or more sets, it requires consultation, appraisal, and approval through Woori Bank's internal procedures. Woori Bank reserves the right to refuse such customer requests for any reason

10.1.5 Customers provided with the set of QR Speaker device must use it for the intended purpose as committed in the relevant service registration agreement, and are not allowed to sell, assign, transfer, exchange, give away, use as collateral, lend, or lease the device set in any form.

- 10.1.6 Customers must use the 4G SIM card provided by Woori Bank for the correct purpose and only for the Speaker device provided under these Terms and Conditions.
- 10.1.7 The fee schedule for using the QR Transaction Notification Speaker Service is regulated on Woori Bank's website from time to time: <https://woori.com.vn/bieu-phi/>. As of 15/07/2025, the fee for using the QR Transaction Notification Speaker service is named "Transaction notification fee via speaker" and is priced at 500.000 VND/device for the first year. This fee may be amended, supplemented, or replaced in accordance with Woori Bank's regulations at each period.
- 10.1.8 Regarding the Provider's service operation fee, customers will be informed by the Provider about technical information as well as related fees arising in the subsequent year.
- 10.1.9 The program is limited by the total budget and the number of speaker devices available.
- 10.1.10 The Provider will hand over the product to customers via postal service.
- 10.1.11 The speaker device will be warranted for 12 months from the date the device is handed over by the provider to Woori Bank.
